FROM THE PASTOR

Dressed and Prepared

Immediately after criticizing the religious leaders through the parable of the tenants in last Sunday's Gospel, Jesus proceeded to tell another parable, again directed at the religious leaders. We hear this parable in today's Gospel. In the parable of the wedding feast, Jesus offers an image of the kingdom of heaven using the symbol of a wedding banquet. Jesus' listeners would have been familiar with the image of a wedding feast as a symbol for God's salvation. They would consider themselves to be the invited guests.

Keeping this in mind helps us to understand the critique Jesus makes with this parable.

The context for this parable is the growing tension between Jesus and the Jewish religious leaders in Jerusalem. This has been the case for the past two Sundays and will continue to be true for the next several weeks.

Again our Lord's parable in today's Gospel is a fairly straightforward outline of salvation history. God is the king! Now, Jesus makes clear, God is sending new servants, His Apostles, to call not only Israelites, but all people (good and bad alike) to the feast of His kingdom. This an image of the Church, which Jesus elsewhere compares to a field sown with both wheat and weeds, and a fishing net that catches good fish and bad.

In today's First Reading from the Prophet Isaiah and in today's Psalm, the Lord's goodness is evident in the symbol of a feast of good food and wine. We have all been called to this great feast of love in the Church, where, as Isaiah foretold, the veil that once separated the nations from the covenants of Israel has been destroyed, where the dividing wall of enmity has been torn down by the blood of Christ.

As we sing in today's Psalm, the Lord has led us to this feast, refreshing our souls in the waters of Baptism, spreading the table before us in the Eucharist. As Paul tells us in today's Second Reading, in the glorious riches of Christ we will find supplied whatever we need. In the rich food of His body and the choice wine of His blood, we have a foretaste of the eternal banquet in the heavenly Jerusalem, when God will destroy death forever.

Jesus' message in the parable cautions against exclusive beliefs about the kingdom of heaven. The parable also teaches about humility. Those who assume that they are the invited guests may find that they have refused the invitation, and so others are invited in their place. To accept the invitation is also to accept its obligations. God wants our full conversion in complete acceptance of his mercy.

But are we dressed for the feast? Are we clothed in the garment of righteousness? Not all who have been called will be chosen for eternal life, Jesus warns. Let us be sure that we're living in a manner worthy of the invitation we've received.

Choicest Blessings, Fr. Tim

Road to Renewal

I pray you have noticed there was great care and concern that went into our Family Mass Schedule. We really did try to consider all possibilities and anticipate our communal needs within the framework given. If we have missed anything or we have not clearly explained something, please do reach out to us so we can have good discussions going forward in our Committees.

Our new Liturgy Schedule goes into effect on Monday, Oct. 30th. The day before, Sunday Oct. 29th, we will Celebrate our commitment to and full functioning as our Lakeshore Catholic Faith Community; our waterfront Family of Catholic Parishes.

I invite all the Faithful of the Lakeshore Catholic Faith Community to join me in celebrating Mass at 12:00 PM on Sunday, October 29th at Saint John Paul II Parish. This will give us time to celebrate our family coming together as well as for you to meet your brothers and sisters in Christ from all five of our parishes.

This Tuesday, the universal church celebrates Saint Ignatius of Antioch, he said, "Take heed, then, often to come together to give thanks to God, and show forth His praise. For when you assemble frequently in the same place, the powers of Satan are destroyed, and the destruction at which he aims is prevented by the unity of your faith." Do come together to give thanks and praise to God for the gift of our Family.

Choicest Blessings, Fr. Tim
