St. Paul wrote: "Whatever is true, honorable, pure, lovely, and gracious... think about these things."

That doesn't sound like what's on TV or YouTube tonight. In a world drowning in vulgarity, we need people to preach about beautiful and holy things!

FROM THE PASTOR

Twenty-Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time: Alive in the Vineyard

Today's Gospel follows directly after last Sunday's Gospel in which Jesus was questioned by Jewish religious leaders about the source of his teaching authority. After refusing to answer their questions, Jesus tells the parable of the two sons and then criticizes the priests and elders for their lack of belief in John the Baptist. In today's Gospel, Jesus once again speaks to the priests and elders with a parable.

Jesus returns to the Old Testament symbol of the vineyard to teach about Israel, the Church, and the kingdom of God. Thus the symbolism of today's First Reading and Psalm is readily understood:

God is the owner, and the house of Israel is the vineyard. A cherished vine, Israel was plucked from Egypt and transplanted in a fertile land specially spaded and prepared by God, hedged about by the city walls of Jerusalem, watched over by the towering Temple. But the vineyard produced no good grapes for the wine, a symbol for the holy lives God wanted for His people. So, God allowed His vineyard to be overrun by foreign invaders, as Isaiah foresees in the First Reading.

Jesus picks up the story where Isaiah leaves off, even using Isaiah's words to describe the vineyard's wine press, hedge, and watchtower. Israel's religious leaders, the tenants in His parable, have learned nothing from Isaiah or Israel's past. Instead of producing good fruits, they've killed the owner's servants, the prophets sent to gather the harvest of faithful souls.

In a dark foreshadowing of His own crucifixion outside Jerusalem, Jesus says the tenants' final outrage will be to seize the owner's son and to kill him outside the vineyard walls. For this, the vineyard, which Jesus calls the kingdom of God, will be taken away and given to new tenants; the leaders of the Church, who will produce its fruit.

We are each a vine in the Lord's vineyard, grafted onto the true vine of Christ, called to bear fruits of the righteousness in Him and to be the "first fruits" of a new creation.

We need to take care that we don't let ourselves be overgrown with the thorns and briars of worldly anxiety. As today's Second Reading advises, we need to fill our hearts and minds with noble intentions and virtuous deeds, rejoicing always that the Lord is near. Let us humbly walk in the Way of the Lord, embracing and sharing "Jesus" – Alive in His Vineyard! Choicest Blessings, Fr. Tim

Road to Renewal

I remind you of the last few weeks here in this post; this has been a careful task performed over time by many of the dedicated members in our community of faith. We did our best to embrace what you have become familiar with while making the necessary changes to function more comprehensively and efficiently as a family of believers. My hope is that we can look at not what we have "lost," or "gotten rid of," but rather what we have been able to improve through our sharing with each other and working together. This weekend's bulletin contains Faith Community, it is the most visible and symbolically important image of our Road to Renewal. It does take in all the things we have been explaining; take some time to look at it, see how sometimes the best place to accommodate our schedules may be a few minutes farther away, but that means are family and our familiarity is growing, always a good thing. Please pray over it and allow your heart to be open.

Let's be mindful of gossip and spite. As Fr. Mock has been heard to say(sort of) – If you have any questions or concerns please leave a message at your Rectory; and if you love it and understand it please pass it on. Okay, it's time to be inviting family and friends back to Church and now you have our Family Schedule to begin Monday, October 30.

One different thing; this past Wednesday marked the opening of the Synod on Synodality in Rome. Cardinals, Bishops, Priests, Deacons, Religious, and Laity gathered with the Holy Father to discuss the future of the Church. Although it is uncertain whether changes will be coming, we pray for those in attendance that the Holy Spirit will guide their efforts.

Thank you! And continue to pray, always. Choicest Blessings, Fr. Tim
