FROM THE PASTOR

TWO IN ONE AGAIN

Sixth Sunday of Easter: Alive in the Spirit

Today's Gospel is a continuation of last week's Gospel: Jesus is speaking to his disciples at the Last Supper. In today's reading Jesus offers encouragement to his disciples, who will soon see him crucified. He reassures them that even though he will leave them, he will not abandon them. Instead, he will send them the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, through whom the disciples will continue to live in union with Jesus.

Jesus uses the term Advocate to describe the Holy Spirit, whom the disciples will receive. Another word used to describe the Holy Spirit is Paraclete, a legal term meaning “one who offers defense for another.” Note that Jesus says that he will send “another Advocate.” Jesus himself is the first advocate, interceding for his disciples with the Father.

Jesus will not leave us alone. He won't make us children of God in Baptism only to leave us “orphans,” He assures us in today's Gospel. He asks the Father to give us His Spirit, to dwell with us and keep us united in the life He shares with the Father. We see the promised gift of His Spirit being conferred in today's First Reading.

The scene from Acts apparently depicts a primitive Confirmation rite. Philip, one of the first deacons, proclaims the Gospel in the non-Jewish city of Samaria. The Samaritans accept the Word of God and are baptized. It remains for the Apostles to send their representatives, Peter and John, to pray and lay hands on the newly baptized, that they might receive the Holy Spirit. This is the origin of our Sacrament of Confirmation, by which the grace of Baptism is completed and believers are sealed with the Spirit promised by the Lord.

We remain in this grace so long as we love Christ and keep His commandments. And, strengthened in the Spirit whom Jesus said would be our Advocate, we are called to bear witness to our salvation, to the tremendous deeds that God has done for us in the name of His Son.

In today's Psalm, we celebrate our liberation. As He changed the sea into dry land to free the captive Israelites, Christ suffered that He might lead us to God, as we hear in today's Second Reading. This is the reason for our hope, the hope that sustains us in the face of a world that cannot accept His truth, the hope that sustains us when we are maligned and defamed for His name's sake.

Put to death in the flesh, He was brought to life in the Spirit, Paul tells us today. And as He himself promises: “Because I live, . . . you will live.”

Today's reading is one example of the contrast that John's Gospel presents between the community of disciples, to whom God reveals Himself, and the unbelieving world, which will remain in darkness. The unbelieving world cannot accept the “Spirit of truth,” whom the disciples receive. Only through the Spirit will God's revelation and love be known.

Choicest Blessings, Fr. Tim

Road to Renewal Update:

As our family moves toward the next steps of the renewal process, it makes a good time to refresh our memories of the renewal or introduce it to those who have not yet read about it. Our family, for the time being, is being referred to as “Family #29” or “Rt. 5 Corridor.” We will choose the name in the future. It consists of one pastor, myself, and three Parochial Vicars. Reverend Johnson Machado and Reverend Ross Syracuse are currently assigned to our family, we continue to await the third priest. The family consist of: St. Anthony's in Farnham, Most Precious Blood in Angola, Saint John Paul II Parish in Lake View, St. Mary's of the Lake in Hamburg, and St. Francis of Assisi in Hamburg. The renewal is going to foster and strengthen our brotherly love in the greater family of Christ. We will begin to look bigger and beyond just our individual parishes. Dr. Scott Hahn wrote, “The Church is the Body of Christ, and as such it is both heavenly and earthly. The Church is the communion of saints, and it includes as members both angels and shepherds - cherubim and seraphim, and you, and me.” I ask you to pray for the renewal and as always, please call your parish office with any questions you may have.

Choicest Blessings, Fr. Tim
