SACRAMENTAL MINISTRIES

CELEBRATION OF EUCHARIST "Do this in memory of me.."

RECONCILIATION "Peace is my gift to you..."

Confessions - Thursday evening 6:00 - 6:30 PM

Saturday afternoon 3:00 - 3:30 PM

BAPTISM "Unless you are born again..."

Arrangements can be made with the parish priest. Parents should be registered in our parish. Baptismal classes are held for parents the second Tuesday of each month at 7:00 PM - only when needed. Call the rectory one week in advance.

SACRAMENT OF MATRIMONY "What God has joined..."

Engaged couples should phone the rectory to make an appointment with the parish priest to set the date and time for their wedding at least six months in advance. Attendance at a Pre-Cana Conference is also required.

CARE OF THE SICK "Come to me you who are weary..." Please notify the rectory office for a pastoral visit to any family member who is sick, confined at home, hospitalized or in a nursing home. Arrangements for the reception of sacraments of the Eucharist can be made through the rectory office. Ministers of the sick are available to bring communion to shut-ins on a weekly basis.

The Sacrament of the Anointing of the sick is administered each First Thursday after the 7:00 PM Mass and upon request.

ADULT INSTRUCTION AND RCIA "Go and teach all nations..."

Adults interested in the Catholic faith are cordially invited to contact the rectory office for information about Adult Inquiry Classes, the Catechumenate, and preparation for adult reception of the Sacraments of Christian Initiation (RCIA).

LETTERS OF RECOMMENDATION "By their fruits you will know them..."

For those who have been asked to be sponsors for Baptism or Confirmation, we gladly issue recommendations for parishioners who: (1) are baptized and confirmed; (2) are at least 16 years old; (3) are registered for at least 6 months; (4) attend Mass regularly; (5) if married, have done so in conformity with the laws of the Church; (6) if they are parents, are sending their children to Catholic School or Religious Instructions; (7) if they are students, are attending Catholic School or Religious Instructions.

PARISH MEMBERSHIP "That they may all be one..."

We always welcome new members to our parish family. Please contact the parish priest or the rectory.

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time – July 9, 2023

"Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest."

Many wonder how they could ever make the sacrifices that priesthood requires.

But Jesus promises that his burden is light –because He's carrying the heaviest part of the load. Visit buffalovocations.org

FROM THE PASTOR

Fourteenth Ordinary A: THE MIND OF GOD

Today's reading from Matthew's Gospel comes after a discourse in which Jesus reproaches people who have witnessed his mighty deeds yet still lack belief. In this context, today's Gospel explains the reason for this unbelief and reveals what is necessary for faith. Today's Gospel also continues to enhance our understanding of discipleship as last week's Gospel did.

The prayer that Jesus prays tells us a lot about God and a lot about ourselves. First, it is a clear statement that God is both Father and Lord (Adonai, in Hebrew) of earth as well as heaven. There is no equal to God, the Creator and Author of all that has being. God is the origin of all that is, and the end to which we are moving.

God is wholly Other and transcendent, yet at the same time completely present and involved in our lives. God is goodness and loving care unlike any other, completely concerned for the welfare of his children, as individuals and as Church. Jesus' prayer also contains a warning that pride can block the action of God in one's life, that is, if we are so wrapped up in ourselves, there can be little room for anything or anyone else, especially God.

Pride, or self-reliance, closes the mind to God's truth and wisdom. Why? Because a disproportionate love of self, an exaggerated estimation of one's own being, tries to turn oneself into God and leave the real God out of the picture or at least on the sidelines of one's life.

Jesus contrasts this approach with a child-like candor and simplicity. The simple or pure of heart know their need for God. These little ones are like babies without any other expectation than to be cared for and loved. They are completely dependent and filled with trust in one who is greater, wiser and more trustworthy. In the present context, we see that One as none other than God, our Father and Lord, Redeemer of the human race.

Those who are truly simple and humble seek one thing: the greatest good, that is to say, God alone. Just as pride, turned in on oneself, blinds us from the true light of Christ, so simplicity of being inclines the heart toward Grace and Truth. The humble of heart are able to receive true wisdom because they are free for God, like a window that is clean, allowing God to shine on and through it.

Jesus makes it possible for each and every person to actually know God as a loving Father, a tender parent, like a mother who can never forget her children. We are all in need of this love and invited by Jesus in the Gospel today to "come and find rest" in the Lord, to take his yoke upon our shoulders and learn from him who is "meek and humble of heart." At that time, Jesus' Yoke was the act of submission to God and to all his commandments, that is, the Torah, or Law of God. It means belonging totally and without compromise to God.

Jesus says that his yoke is "easy." The Greek word used can also mean the yoke "fits the wearer," is "tailor-made" for each person. We cannot live anyone else's life, but only the life God has given us, with our weaknesses and strengths, our particular needs. What God has revealed in his "Law" sustains us in our needs. This is sacramental life of the Church.

Jesus also says that his "burden is light." No burden can be too heavy if it is carried in love. Only Jesus can lift the burdens we carry, freeing us for the Kingdom of righteousness, peace and love. May the Lord give us a child-like simplicity, a purity of heart that helps us to go to the meek and humble Lord, who alone can free us from the burden of sin and guilt.

Christ desires to rule in our hearts and to remove all doubts and fears, whatever hinders us from submitting joyfully to the one who can "bring our mortal bodies to life through the Holy Spirit dwelling in our hearts," as we hear in our second reading. May the Holy Eucharist we celebrate and partake in be a real meeting and communion between us and God, who longs to save his children. Choicest Blessings, Fr. Tim

Road to Renewal Update:

46% of Catholic adults in the US are single. This comprises of widowed (6.4%); never-married (27.7%), separated (3.3%) or divorced (8.7%). They range in years of age and variety of careers. Sitting alone in the parish pew can be a lonely experience. We must increase our efforts to make everyone feel welcome. When you see a single person sitting alone, greet them at Mass or at a gathering. Continue to support widows and widowers: This group often describe feeling abandoned by both friends and their church when a spouse dies.

As part of the renewal process, our family will be evaluating our ministries and outreach programs. We will look strategically at information like that above to make sure we are doing everything we can to bring the Gospel to everyone. Our parish councils and leadership teams are a great source of information and a place to bring your concerns and observations.

"Preach the Gospel at all times, and if necessary use words." This famous quote often attributed to Saint Francis of Assisi is a practical example and model for our lives. If we continue to exemplify the life of Christ and His teachings to everyone, even in the smallest ways, we will continue to grow our family of faith, and live up to today's Gospel. Choicest Blessings, Fr. Tim

ST. FRANCIS OF ASSISI FAMILY INFORMATION: Every Friday after our 8:00 AM Mass we have Eucharistic Exposition, Adoration and Benediction until 9:15 AM. The special intention we have at this time is for the diocesan plan for The Road To Renewal. We don't know what this will mean for us as things unfold, but we are praying that all those involved in leadership positions and planning will be open to the Holy Spirit so that what is decided will be for the good of everyone. Please keep this intention in your daily prayers. Every Wednesday Night here at St. Francis of Assisi Parish in Athol Springs we have Bingo from 7:30 PM to 9:30 PM. Using our brand new state-of-the-art equipment we efficiently play many games of Bingo and give away over $2,000 in prizes every week! Doors open at 6:00 pm, the kitchen is open from 7:00 pm for purchase of food, beverages, and Bingo daubers. Come join us and bring a friend or two! St. Francis of Assisi has a 6:00 PM Mass every Sunday. All are welcome to attend.
